HISTORICAL SKETCH.

ORGANIZATION.

A NUMBER of christian residents of Auburndale having become persuaded that their convenience required, and that their circumstances would justify, the establishment of religious services near their own homes, took the appropriate steps during the latter part of October and the early part of November, 1850, toward the organization of a new church. In compliance with their invitation, a council of churches met for this purpose in the public hall at Auburndale, November 14th, and, giving the sanction of their approval to what had been done, proceeded with the public services usual upon such occasions. Thirty-four persons signed their names to the confession of faith and covenant of the newly-formed church. Of these, one only united on profession. The others, for the most part, had been attendants upon worship with the Second Congregational Church of Newton. They were, however, members of various churches, either of Boston and the vicinity or places more remote, previous to their union in this infant enterprise. The new organization assumed the name of "THE EVANGELICAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF AUBURNDALE," and adopted the following

CONFESSION OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH.

ARTICLE I.

We believe there is one only living and true God, the Creator and Preserver of the universe, a Being self-existent, independent, and immutable, and, in all his attributes, infinite.

Deut. vi: 4 — Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. Is. xlv: 5 — I am the Lord, and there is none else; there is no God besides me. Jer. x: 10 — The Lord is the true God, he is the living God. 1 Cor. viii: 6 — To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. Ex. iii: 14 — And God said unto Moses, I am that I am. Mal. iii: vi — I am the Lord, I change not. James i: 17 — The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Job xi: 7, 8, 9 — Canst thou by searching find out God? Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know? The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

ARTICLE II.

We believe that God made all things for himself; that known unto him are all his works from the beginning; that he governs all things according to the counsel of his own will; and that the principles and administration of his government are perfectly holy, just, and good.

Rev. iv: 11 — Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. Is. xlvi: 10 — Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure. Eph. i: 11 — Predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will. Is. vi: 3 — And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Nahum i: 3 — The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. Ex. xxxiv: 6, 7 — The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth; keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty. Ps. cxix: 68 — Thou art good, and doest good.

ARTICLE III.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient and perfect rule of faith and practice.

2 Tim. iii: 16 — All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. 2 Peter i: 21 — For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. Is. viii: 20 — To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. 2 Tim. iii: 15 — The Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 1 Thess. ii: 13 — For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. Gal. i: 8 — But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

ARTICLE IV.

We believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as existing in three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, and that these three are one God, equal in power and glory.

Matt. xxviii: 19 — Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. 1 John v: 7 — For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one. 2 Cor. xiii: 14 — The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. 1 Peter i: 2 — Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Phil. ii: 6 — Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. John i: 1 — In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. Is. ix: 6 — Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. John i: 14 — And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. Col. ii: 9 — For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. Matt. i: 23 — Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which, being interpreted, is, God with us. 1 Tim. iii: 16 — And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. John xx: 28 — Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 1 John v: 20 — This is the true God, and eternal life. John x: 30 — I and my Father are one. Rev. i: 8 — I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Heb. xiii: 8 — Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever. Col. i: 16, 17 — For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions, or principalities or powers; all things were created by him, and for him; and he is before all things, and by him all things consist. John v: 23 — That all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. Heb. i: 6 — When he bringeth in the First-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

ARTICLE V.

We believe that God created man holy, that he fell from this state by voluntarily transgressing the divine command, and that, in consequence of this apostasy, mankind are, in their natural state, destitute of holiness, and prone to sin; and continue alienated from God until renewed in heart by the Holy Ghost.

Gen. i: 26, 27 — And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him. Eccl. vii: 29 — Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions. Rom. v: 12, 18, 19 — Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. By the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation. By one man's disobedience many were made sinners. Rom. vii: 18 — For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. Rom. viii: 7, 8 — Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Jer. xvii: 9 — The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it? Rom. iii: 10-12 — As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one; There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

ARTICLE VI.

We believe that through the sovereign mercy of God, his Son Jesus Christ, as "God manifest in the flesh," by his sufferings and death, has made the only adequate atonement for sin, so that now God can be just and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus; and that upon the conditions of repentance for sin and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, forgiveness and eternal life are sincerely and freely offered to all.

Rom. iii: 25, 26 — Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. 1 Tim. i: 15 — This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Acts iv: 12 — Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Luke xxiv: 46, 47 — Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name, among all nations. Heb. ix: 22 — Without shedding of blood is no remission. John iii: 16 — For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

ARTICLE VII.

We believe that mankind, until renewed in heart, do refuse to comply with these conditions, to the aggravation of their guilt and condemnation; that God, notwithstanding, did from the beginning choose unto life, and purpose to reclaim unto holiness, all who are saved; and that they, being justified freely by his grace, are kept by his power, through faith, unto salvation.

1 Cor. ii: 14 — But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. Rom. viii: 7, 8 — The carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. John v: 40 — Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. 2 Thess. ii: 13, 14 — God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth: Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom. viii: 29, 30 — For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the First-born among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Ephes. i: 4 — According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. 2 Tim. i: 9 — Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. Final Perseverance. Phil. i: 6 — Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ. John vi: 39 — And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. John x: 27–29 — My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. Rom. viii: 38, 39 — For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ARTICLE VIII.

We believe that God has set apart one day in seven as a day of holy rest, which is to be held sacred to him to the end of the world.

Ex. xx: 8–10 — Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. In it thou shalt not do any work, etc. Gen. ii: 3 — And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work. Ezek. xx: 12, 20 — Moreover, also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them. Hallow my Sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God. 1 Cor. xvi: 1, 2 — Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him. Acts xx: 7 — And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow. Rev. i: 10 — I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day.

ARTICLE IX.

We believe that Christ has instituted a visible church on the earth, in which the proper conditions of membership are Baptism and a public profession of faith in Christ, sustained by credible evidence of that holiness which is the result of renewing and sanctifying grace in the heart.

1 Cor. i: 2 — Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours. 1 Cor. xii: 12, 13 — For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. Eph. i: 22, 23 — And gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all. Acts ii: 41 — Then they that gladly received his word were baptized; and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. Heb. x: 22–25 — Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised:) And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is. Eph. iv: 1–3 — That ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

ARTICLE X.

We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances to be observed in the church to the end of the world; Baptism to be administered only to covenanting believers and their households, and the Supper to visible believers in regular church standing.

Matt. xxviii: 19 — Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Acts ii: 38 — Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins. Rom. vi: 4 — Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. Mark xvi: 16 — He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved. Acts viii: 37 — And Philip said, If thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest. Gen. xvii: 7 — And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Acts ii: 39 — For the promise is unto you, and to your children. Acts xvi: 33 — And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his. Acts xvi: 15 — She was baptized and her household. 1 Cor. i: 16 — And I baptized also the household of Stephanas.

The Lord's Supper. Matt. xxvi: 26–30 — And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it: for this is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. 1 Cor. xi: 27, 29 — Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

ARTICLE XI.

We believe in the Resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust; and that God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained, Jesus Christ; that then, all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that he will separate the righteous from the wicked, saying to the righteous, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; and to the wicked, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels; and that these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

1 Cor. xv: 52 — The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. John v: 28, 29 — Marvel not at this; for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation. Matt. xxv: 31–33 — When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory; and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on his left. Rom. xiv: 10, 12 — We shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Dan. xii: 2 — And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 2 Thess. i: 9 — Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power. Rev. xiv: 13 — And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

THE COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affections, and your chosen portion forever. You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ as your only Saviour and your final Judge; and the Holy Ghost as your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide. You humbly and cheerfully devote yourself to God, in the everlasting covenant of his grace; consecrating all your powers and faculties to his service and glory; and you promise that, through the assistance of his Spirit and grace, you will cleave to him as your chief good; that you will give diligent attendance to his word and ordinances; the observance of his Sabbath, public, family, and secret worship; that you will seek the honor of his name, the interests of his kingdom, and the salvation of your fellow-men; and that henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly in the world.

You do now cordially join yourself to this as a church of Christ, engaging to submit to its discipline, so far as conformable to the rules of the gospel, and solemnly covenanting to strive, as much as in you lies, for its gospel peace, edification, and purity; and to walk with its members in all member-like love, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness, and sobriety. You also recognize your obligations to the church universal, regarding yourself as to be henceforward so identified with its interests, and so unchangeably in covenant with it, that if Providence shall remove your residence from one branch of it, you will be bound to connect yourself with another.

Thus you covenant, promise, and engage.

Then do we, the members of this church, receive you into our communion, and promise to watch over you with Christian affection and tenderness, ever treating you in love as a member of the body of Christ, who is Head over all things to the church.

This we do, imploring of the great Shepherd of Israel, our Lord and Redeemer, that both we and you may have wisdom and grace to be faithful in his covenant, and to glorify him with the holiness which becometh his house forever. Amen.

PLACES OF WORSHIP.

The convenient and pleasant hall of the village, where religious services were first held, located on the west side of Lexington Street, third lot from Auburn Street, served the purpose of the church for several years. Subsequently it was occupied by the Episcopalians, and, upon the discontinuance of their services, became the place of worship for the Methodist Church of Auburndale, remaining thus until it was destroyed by fire in July, 1865.

Convinced that it must soon be necessary to secure a building of their own, the society, on the 15th of June, 1853, authorized the purchase of a lot upon which to erect a church edifice. It was, however, about three years later when active measures were instituted for carrying out this intention; and the society voted September 10, 1856, to erect a building according to a plan furnished by Mr. Charles E. Parker. This building was completed and furnished at a total cost of about $12,000. The services of dedication were held July 1, 1857.

During a violent storm on the night of March 24, 1862, the graceful spire with the bell was blown down upon the roof, causing great damage to the main body of the edifice. The house was repaired and the spire rebuilt at an expense of sixteen hundred dollars. While thus temporarily excluded from their usual place of worship, the society had the hall of the Lasell Seminary kindly placed at their service by Mr. George W. Briggs, the principal.

The building thus repaired remained for several years the only place for the meetings of the church and Sunday-school, no alteration being made except a slight enlargement of the gallery.

The need of other accommodations, however, led at length to the raising of money for a chapel fund. This fund, originating in a sale by the Ladies' Benevolent Society in February, 1872, was increased from time to time by the proceeds of an exhibition, fairs, concerts, contributions in the church, and individual subscriptions, till October, 1878, when, with interest, it amounted to $2,394.59.

On the 6th of December, 1877, the society voted to enlarge the meeting-house and build a chapel. A building committee, consisting of Capt. Charles E. Ranlett, Rev. Isaac R. Worcester, and Mr. Nathan Mosman, prepared the plan, in accordance with which the body of the house was cut in two, the eastern end moved back a distance of twenty-one feet and the space between inclosed. By this enlargement two windows were added on each side of the church, and the number of pews was increased by thirty, furnishing one hundred and fifty or more additional sittings. At the same time a chapel was erected adjoining the church in the rear, containing three rooms, which, by folding doors, could be thrown into one, and furnished with chairs for three hundred people. The original side entrance of the church was moved back and now opens into a vestibule, having doors on the left into the church, and on the right into the chapel. At the other end of the vestibule is a small room for the library. Stairs also connect it with the basement, which contains a dining-room, kitchen, and other apartments.

A canvassing committee obtained by subscriptions a sum sufficient, with the chapel fund, to cover the estimated cost of the work. A deficiency remaining after the completion of the work was promptly made up by private subscriptions, and the building was finished without a debt. The total expenditure for building and furnishing the chapel and enlarging the church was $9,783.35.

The chapel was opened for service June 28, 1878. The church was re-opened for public worship on Sunday, September 22, 1878.

MINISTERS.

After the organization of the church religious services were for two years conducted in turn by several resident clergymen, namely, the Rev. Sewall Harding, Rev. Jonathan E. Woodbridge, and Rev. Charles D. Pigeon. Subsequently, Rev. Melancthon G. Wheeler, who had occasionally officiated, was engaged to supply the pulpit statedly for one year.

On the 20th of June, 1856, the Rev. Edward W. Clark, who had been fulfilling an engagement of several months' continuance with the society, was invited to become the pastor. The call was accepted, but by request of Mr. Clark his installation was postponed until the dedication of the new church, and the services appertaining to both occasions took place on the same day, July 1, 1857. Mr. Clark continued pastor until June 20, 1861, when, in accordance with his own request and with the consent of the church, he was dismissed by act of council.

The services of the Rev. JAMES MEANS, residing at the time in Auburndale, were engaged soon after the dismission of Mr. Clark, and he occupied the pulpit during nearly one year.

Subsequently the church remained without the ministrations of any pastor or stated supply, until, after hearing candidates for several months, a call was extended January 12, 1864, to the Rev. AUGUSTUS H. CARRIER. This call was accepted, and Mr. Carrier was installed pastor of the church on the 10th of February following. Illness in his family led him to resign his pastorate October 7, 1866, and with the approval of a mutual council he was dismissed May 9, 1867.

On the 19th of February, 1867, the church called the Rev. CALVIN CUTLER, pastor of the Congregational Church in New Ipswich, N. H. He accepted the call, and was installed May 9, 1867.

PARSONAGES.

For several years the pastor of the church dwelt "in his own hired house;" but in May, 1867, the society purchased a dwelling house on Hawthorne Avenue. This was occupied by the pastor until the autumn of 1873, when it was sold, the society having secured for a parsonage the very desirable estate situated on the corner of Grove Street and Woodland Avenue, adjoining the grounds of the church. On Sunday morning, May 23, 1880, subscriptions were made in church sufficient to remove a mortgage of $5,000 upon the parsonage. Since that time the society has continued free from debt.

SPIRITUAL PROGRESS.

The number of church members at first was small, but there has been substantial growth through the successive years since the church was organized. As the number of residents in the village has increased the congregation has grown, until now the house of worship, as enlarged, is well filled on the Sabbath. The church has shared, from time to time, in such effusions of the Spirit as have visited God's people in this vicinity.

ORGANIZATIONS FOR CHURCH WORK.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL, formed before the church was organized, has been cherished by the church as one of its most useful instrumentalities for the salvation of souls. It has enjoyed the efficient oversight of several excellent superintendents, and a large portion of the church are engaged either as teachers or pupils in its exercises every Sunday. A monthly concert is maintained in connection with the school, much of the interest of which for the pupils is attributable to their own participation by the recitation of Scripture verses in its services. God has blessed, from time to time, the labors and prayers of the teachers in the conversion of members of their classes.

The sessions of the school are held at the close of the Sunday morning service of the church. The officers are annually nominated by the teachers and members of the adult classes, and elected by the church at their annual meeting on the third Tuesday evening of November.

At the present time (1887) the whole number belonging to the school is 264.

The activities of the church are promoted by various OTHER ORGANIZATIONS for doing good.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society was organized under a constitution January 16, 1851. Its industries have been directed mainly to the making up of boxes of clothing for the families of home missionaries at the West. Through committees it also provides sociables for the congregation during the winter season. Regular meetings are held in the chapel parlor on Thursday afternoons, twice a month, from October to May.

The Mothers' Association was formed on the first Wednesday in April, 1870. On the fourth of May following a constitution was adopted and the association was organized. Its object is to seek to promote the christian nurture of the children. Its meetings have been well attended from the first, and already tender memories are connected with them that are pleasant and useful to recall. The association meets in the chapel parlor on the first Wednesday of each month, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The Woman's Board of Missions (Auxiliary) was organized prior to April, 1871. Its object is to deepen the interest of christian women in giving the gospel to the women of heathen lands. Regular meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the Missionary Home.

The young people connected with the congregation sustained for several years a weekly prayer-meeting by themselves. On the 5th of April, 1883, they formed a Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, organized under a constitution. It is connected with a national union of similar societies.

Its weekly meetings, regularly on Sunday evenings, are well sustained. The whole number of active members of the society since it was organized is 121; number at present, 68.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society meets every other Tuesday in the chapel parlor, at three o'clock P. M.

The Willing Hands hold a meeting every Saturday in the chapel parlor at 2.30 o'clock P. M.

UNION SOCIETIES. A Woman's Christian Temperance Union, auxiliary to the national society, was formed September 15, 1878.

A children's Band of Hope was organized November 15, 1878.

BENEVOLENT CONTRIBUTIONS.

Regular annual contributions in the church are made at present in the following order:

For American College and Education Society in January or February.
" Massachusetts Home Missionary Society in March or April.
" American Congregational Union in May or June.
" Congregational Sunday-School and Publishing Society in July or August.
" American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in September or October.
" American Missionary Association in November or December.

Contributions to other societies or objects are made by depositing the amount (in an envelope properly marked) in the boxes as they are passed on Sunday morning.

Owing doubtless in part to the fact that officers of the American Board, and missionaries in connection with it, have been residents of Auburndale and members of this church, the cause of foreign missions has been specially near to the hearts of our people. Having every facility for becoming acquainted with the past history and present progress of missions, their sympathies and contributions have been, as compared with other claims, largely accorded to that form of beneficence which seeks the evangelization of the world. Still, the grace of giving has been, to a greater or less extent, exercised with reference not only to each of the designated charities of the church, but also towards various other objects which were deemed deserving. In 1865 the contributions of the church amounted to $4,500 in the depreciated currency of that day; in 1886, to a little more than $4,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Bell now in the tower of the church was cast in Boston at the foundry of Mr. Henry N. Hooper, and was purchased of him in the autumn of 1857. Its weight is 3,150 pounds. It cost about $1,100, which sum was raised by special subscription. When the spire was blown down in 1862 the bell, though falling to the ground, was uninjured.

Church Clocks. In 1858 a clock was placed in the tower of the church, but proving unsatisfactory, it was in 1862 exchanged for one of the Turret and Marine Clock Company at a cost of $151. This also, in January, 1887, was exchanged for the present clock, which was made in Worcester, Mass., in 1812, and had done good service in the tower of the Hollis Street Church in Boston.

Organs. A small organ purchased of Messrs. E. & G. G. Hook in 1857, for $675, was placed first in a little room in the rear of the pulpit, then moved to the side of the pulpit on the north, then carried to the west end of the church and placed on a raised platform opposite the pulpit, then elevated to the gallery facing first to the east and then to the north, and was very satisfactory until the church was enlarged. In 1877 this was exchanged for the larger organ now in use, which was built by Mr. G. H. Ryder, and procured at a cost of $1,800.

Music. The maintenance of public worship for nearly forty years has involved many changes in the service of song in the house of the Lord. The congregation has been led by choirs, sometimes larger, sometimes smaller, whose services, for the most part gratuitous, have always been acceptable. For several years the Sabbath Hymn-book was in use, but in May, 1875, the church adopted the Songs for the Sanctuary.

SERVICES OF PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Sunday.

The morning service is held in the church at half past ten o'clock.

The Sunday-school meets in the chapel at the close of the morning service.

Evening meetings are held in the church or chapel.

A prayer-meeting is held in the chapel every Friday evening at 7.30, or in summer at 7.45 o'clock. On the Friday before the communion the preparatory lecture takes the place of the prayer-meeting.

SACRAMENTS.

The sacrament of The Lord's Supper is administered at the close of the morning service on the first Sunday of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

The preparatory lecture is given in the chapel on Friday evening before the communion.

The infant children of believing parents may be presented for Baptism at any Sunday morning service after the reading of the scriptures, the pastor having been previously informed of the name of the child, the date of birth, and the names of the parents. The whole number who have received baptism is 134.

PRESENTATION OF BIBLES.

This custom the church adopted in 1884. On the 22d of April, 1887, it was voted: "That Bibles suitably inscribed be hereafter presented on Children's Day — the second Sunday in June — in the name of the church, to the baptized children of this church who shall have reached the age of seven years during the preceding twelve months."

BY-LAWS OF THE CHURCH.

Adopted November 28, 1865, with later amendments.

I. Permanent Officers.— The permanent officers of this church are the Pastor and the Deacons.

To the Pastor pertains the office of moderator. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to assist in the administration of the Lord's Supper; to distribute the charities of the church; to aid the Pastor generally in the spiritual care of the flock; and to preside in his absence, according to seniority, at business meetings of the church.

II. Annual Officers and Standing Committees.— At the annual meeting for business the following officers and committees shall be chosen for the ensuing year:

1. A Clerk, who shall keep the records of the church.
2. A Treasurer, to take charge of all moneys belonging to the church and collected for religious and charitable objects; and to make a report at the annual meeting.
3. An Auditor, to examine the Treasurer's accounts.
4. An examining committee, of which the pastor and deacons shall constitute a part, who shall examine all applicants for admission to the church, and present the names of such as they approve, and shall also act as a committee of inquiry with regard to cases for discipline.
5. A committee of coöperation with the society, on music, to superintend that part of public worship.

6. A committee of coöperation with the society for the supply of the pulpit.

7. A committee on religious and benevolent contributions, of which the pastor, ex officio, shall be chairman, and the treasurer shall be a member,

8. A Superintendent and other officers of the Sunday-school, for the ensuing year.

III. Standing Rules — 1. All meetings for business shall be opened with prayer.

2. The annual meeting for the choice of officers and standing committees shall be on the third Tuesday evening of November.

3. All standing committees and annual officers may be chosen, according as the church may direct at the time, either by ballot or a hand vote.

4. All members of twenty-one years of age and upwards shall be entitled to vote at the meetings of the church.

5. Candidates for admission, whether by letter or profession, are to stand propounded to the church for at least two weeks; and notice shall be given to the congregation of such as are expected to make a profession, two Sabbaths previous to the one upon which they are to be received. Public admissions may take place at any communion season, and all persons uniting with the church will be expected to sign the articles of faith and covenant.

6. The church will observe the sacrament of the Lord's Supper on the first Sabbath of every alternate month, commencing with the first Sabbath of January.

7. Church members removing from the place are expected to obtain their dismission within one year from the time of their removal, unless circumstances are such as to render a union with any other church inexpedient. In that case they are requested to report from year to year their desire to retain their connection with this church. The names of absent members not heard from for five years may, by vote of the church, be placed in a separate list and not reported, so long as the church remains unable to communicate with them.

It is likewise expected that members of other churches who may wish to commune with this church for more than one year will request a removal of their connection to us, unless they give satisfactory reasons for delay to the pastor and deacons.

THE SOCIETY.

THE CONGREGATIONAL SOCIETY OF AUBURNDALE was organized October 17, 1850, and continued to sustain public worship in connection with the Evangelical Congregational Church of Auburndale, depending for its revenue upon voluntary subscriptions until 1857, when the present church edifice was completed. It was then thought to be safer for those who had contributed to build the church edifice to control it, and the pew-owners were organized into the Auburndale Congregational Society.

This continued until 1873, the revenues of the society being collected (in part at least) by assessment on the pews. At this time the number of pew-owners had become so small in proportion to the numbers in the congregation, that it was thought desirable to broaden the basis of the society; and in June of that year the Congregational Society of Auburndale was organized, to which any male over twenty-one years of age who had worshiped with us during the preceding six months and contributed towards the expenses was eligible for membership. This society assumed the expenses attending the support of public worship, depending upon voluntary subscriptions and offerings for its revenue, and has so continued to the present time.

BY-LAWS OF THE CONGREGATIONAL SOCIETY OF AUBURNDALE.

SECTION 1. Pertaining to the Action of the Society.

Article 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the society on the fourth Wednesday in April, at such hour and place as the Standing Committee shall appoint.

Art. 2. At such annual meeting the following officers and committees shall be chosen to hold their offices for one year, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead, viz.: a clerk, a treasurer, a collector, and a standing committee of three persons, all of whom shall be chosen by ballot, and, so far as the law requires, sworn into office; an auditor to examine the treasurer's accounts; and a committee on music, consisting of two persons, to act jointly with a committee of three to be chosen by the church; and a committee on pews, consisting of the treasurer and two other persons.

Art. 3. It shall be the duty of the clerk to preside at all meetings of the society, until the choice of a moderator, and to keep a record of all the votes passed at each meeting. He shall call all special meetings of the society when thereto required in writing by any five members of the society. All meetings shall be called by him by posting up a notice of the time, place, and object thereof in some conspicuous place in the vestibule or porch of the meeting-house, for not less than seven days immediately preceding the time appointed for such meeting.

Art. 4. The standing committee shall have authority to provide for lighting and warming the building occupied by the society; to appoint the sexton and fix his salary; and generally to manage the property and concerns of the society — expending, however, only such sums of money as shall be placed at their disposal by the society.

Art. 5. The committee on music shall have authority to make all such arrangements in regard to the music in the exercises of public worship as they shall deem expedient; but they shall expend therefor only such sums of money as shall be placed at their disposal by the society.

Art. 6. The committee on pews shall have authority to sell and let pews when authorized by vote of the society, and subject to such regulations as the society shall adopt.

Art. 7. The treasurer shall have charge of all moneys belonging to the society, and shall present his accounts, properly audited, at each annual meeting. No money shall be paid out by the treasurer except pursuant to a vote of the society, or by order of some standing committee thereto authorized by a vote of the society.

Art. 8. The collector shall collect all taxes and assessments on pews, and all voluntary subscriptions, and shall pay the same to the treasurer.[1]

Art. 9. No alteration shall be made in these by-laws unless the same shall be agreed to by two thirds of the legal voters present at any meeting called for that purpose.

[1] The society voted in 1873 to omit the assessment on pews and to depend on voluntary subscriptions.

Art. 10. All deeds of pews from the society shall be given on such terms as the society shall direct, and shall be signed and sealed by the treasurer; and all subsequent transfers of pews shall be by deed, to be recorded by the treasurer.

The taxes on pews shall be payable quarterly, on the first days of March, June, September, and December of each year. Any pew proprietor may be released from the payment of taxes for any year or quarter by giving up the use of said pew for such time to the society, by a written notice to the treasurer previous to the commencement of said year or quarter.

Art. 11. Any person legally qualified to vote in civil affairs, and who for six months immediately preceding shall have regularly attended its meetings for worship and contributed to its support, may become a member of this society on being elected by a majority vote at any regular meeting, and subscribing his name to its by-laws. Any person may cease to be a member on filing with the clerk a written notice declaring the dissolution of his membership. And the society may, by a majority vote, terminate the membership of any person who, for six months immediately preceding, has failed to attend its meetings for worship and to contribute to its support.

SECTION 2. Pertaining to Joint Action of the Church and Society.

Article 1. Whenever this society and the Congregational church of Auburndale, with which it proposes to be associated for the support of public worship, shall be destitute of a settled pastor, a joint committee consisting of seven persons, of whom four shall be chosen by the church and three by the society, shall supply the pulpit and adopt all measures necessary to that end.

Art. 2. The church shall have the right to select the pastor to be proposed to the society for their concurrence; if such selection be approved by the society, a joint call from the church and society shall be extended to the person selected; but in case of non-concurrence, the church shall select until the society concurs, when a joint call as above shall be given to the person so selected and approved.

Art. 3. The amount of salary to be paid to the pastor shall be fixed by the society.

FORM OF ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

[The candidates, without waiting to be called for, come forward in front of the pulpit, while the minister, or the choir, is reciting the following sentences or other selections from the Holy Scriptures.]

Minister. Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

Choir. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And he that is athirst, let him come. And he that will, let him take the water of life freely.

[Then the minister shall address the candidates, saying:]

DEARLY BELOVED: Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Called of God, you are come before his presence now to confess the Lord Jesus, and to enter into covenant with his church. The Lord from on high confirm with you his covenant of peace, and by his Spirit help you to witness a good confession.

WE BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; who so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that we might live through him;

And in Jesus Christ his Son, our Lord, who in the beginning was with God, and was God; who came down from heaven and was made man; who died for our sins, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life; who rose from the dead and ascended up on high, and sitteth on the right hand of God making intercession for us; who in the end of the world will come again to be our Judge;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter; by whose inspiration the Holy Scriptures were given to teach us what we are to believe concerning God, and what duties God requires of man; by whom we who by nature are the children of disobedience are renewed and sanctified and kept unto life eternal; who, with the Father and the Son, together one God, is to be worshiped world without end.

WE BELIEVE in one church of God on earth and in heaven, with one baptism for the remission of sins for believers and their children, and one communion of the body and blood of Christ;

And in the Lord's Day to be kept as a day of holy rest and worship;

And in the Resurrection of the dead;

And in the Judgment of the great day, when the wicked will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.

[Do you believe this?]

In the presence of God and this assembly do you now acknowledge the Lord Jehovah — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — to be your God; do you truly repent of your sins and receive Jesus the Christ as your Saviour and Lord; do you give yourselves to the service of God, accepting his Word as the truth and his Spirit as your guide?

The baptism that you received when your parents entered into covenant with God for you, you do now gratefully accept as the sign of your own covenant with God.

And you, who have not been baptized, will now receive the seal of your covenant with God.

Do you now cheerfully enter into covenant with this church of Christ, engaging, according to the grace given unto you, to consider yourselves identified with its interests; to uphold its faith; to aid in its support; to share in its activities of work and worship so long as you remain with us — and expecting if you should remove to connect yourselves with some other branch of the church of Christ?

Then do we, the members of this church [here all the members of the church will rise], in the name of the Lord Jesus joyfully greet you as members with us of the church which is his body. We welcome you to communion and fellowship with us, promising to watch over you with christian love, and praying that both we and you may have wisdom and grace to walk in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

And as a token of brotherly kindness we give you the hand of welcome in the name of the church.

[Here the minister will give to each the right hand, repeating some suitable selection of Scripture.]

You also who come to us with letters of commendation from sister churches do now enter into covenant with this church, desiring to serve with us in our work of faith and labor of love, and to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Then do we, the members of this church in the fellowship of the churches, gladly receive you, not as having dominion over your faith, but as helpers of your joy and heirs together of the grace of life.

And now, beloved in the Lord, ye are all the sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus.

For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.
